

The FDHA Mission

Ensuring quality care is provided through Grady Health System and meeting the unmet needs of the indigent and medically underserved populations in Fulton and DeKalb counties by engaging, educating and empowering communities, healthcare providers and stakeholders.

38,988 Citizens

from Fulton and DeKalb counties benefited from programs, services, initiatives, and partnerships, funded by the FDHA to address community health concerns.

- Access to Care: 14,345
- Breast Cancer: 166
- Diabetes: 4,757
- HIV/AIDS: 18,085
- Mental Health: 1,635

240,495 Made Use of Network of Care

which serves as a resource for individuals, families, and agencies concerned with community health. As a one-stop-shop, it features zip code level health outcome and demographic data for the two counties, best practices for programs, legislative updates, and national health outcome data.

Visit the website for more information
<https://fultondekalb.ga.networkofcare.org/ph/>

26 Non-Profit Organizations

received funding, technical assistance and training from The FDHA to build capacity to further address community health concerns.

$574,947 Invested in addressing and enhancing community health through the FDHA's long term grant funding to 30 organizations dedicated to achieving positive health outcomes for citizens in Fulton and DeKalb counties.

1169 People

attended FDHA's 9th Annual Health Summit: Stop the Violence. The purpose of our health summits are to build a healthy community by sharing resources and solutions.